All fees, tuition and charges are subject to change at any time at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

The University reserves the right to change, without prior notice, the contents of its Bulletins and to modify its academic calendar and programs of instruction; academic and disciplinary requirements, policies and procedures, rules and regulations; its tuition, fees and charges, and the terms of financial aid. Changes shall be effective upon publication or when the University otherwise determines, and any such change may apply to prospective students and to those who already are enrolled at the University.

Fairleigh Dickinson University is committed to providing equal opportunity to all qualified persons and does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, creed, national origin, sex, disability, age, sexual preference, sexual orientation, marital status, military status or veteran's status with regard to recruitment, admission or matriculation.

The Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act

The Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act was signed into law in 1990 and amended with the Higher Education Technical Amendment of 1991. The first disclosure date for graduation/completion rates required by the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act was July 1, 1993. In compliance with this act, Fairleigh Dickinson University makes this information available to current and prospective students through the Office of Enrollment Management.

Major Religious Holy Days

The University respects the observance of major religious holy days by members of the campus community. Officers of administration and of instruction responsible for scheduling required academic activities or essential services are expected to avoid conflict with such holy days as much as possible.

*Weekend College and some Petrocelli College of Continuing Studies courses may follow a different schedule.

Proposed.
