Registration, Tuition and Billing Information

Registration: Fall, Spring and Summer

New students are notified concerning registration procedures by the Admissions Office.

Continuing students receive advanced registration privileges. This advanced registration begins in April for summer and fall terms and mid-November for spring and winter terms.

All students should register through their home campus.

Students will not be permitted to register for courses unless all financial obligations to the University have been satisfied. Academic records also will be withheld until all financial obligations have been resolved.

Tuition and Fees

All fees, tuition and charges are subject to change at any time at the discretion of the University's Board of Trustees.

Fees and charges are for the academic year 2015–2016 or for the specific service described, unless otherwise stated. New tuition and fees charges for 2016–2017 will be announced in the spring of 2016. Please check with the Office of Enrollment Services for current charges.

employees. Students who are employed full time should inquire through their personnel department about their company's tuition-aid program.

Corporate Reimbursement Deferred Payment Plan

Students who receive corporate reimbursement may be eligible to defer their tuition payment until 45 days after the completion of the course. There is a 4 percent service charge for this accommodation.

Credit Cards

The University has contracted with a third-party processor to provide this service, Official Payments. Students have the option to pay online.

Access information is available on the enrollment services website at <http://inside.fdu.edu> or directly on the student's WebAdvisor account.

The processor will charge a nonrefundable 2.5 percent convenience fee to the credit card user based on the amount of the payment for MasterCard, Visa, American Express and Discover. The convenience fee is for the use of the service and retained in full by the vendor not the University. Students may also pay by ACH (electronic check) with no fee assessed.

Students may access their account balance using the University's WebAdvisor system or if students need assistance with determining their student account balance, they may contact the Office of Enrollment Services by calling:

- 201-692-2213 for the Metropolitan Campus or
- 973-443-8600 for the Florham Campus.

Terms of Payment

The payment deadline is established as August 15 for the fall semester and January 2 for the spring semester. By these dates, students must have paid their tuition, room and board and fees charges in full or have been enrolled into an approved payment plan. All students are expected to pay summer and winter sessions' charges on their day of registration or prior to the term's start date. Payments may be made by check made payable to Fairleigh Dickinson University and mailed to the Office of Enrollment Services on the student's home campus. Students may also pay in person on either of the two campus locations. Refer to "Credit Cards" for additional information on how to make a payment using a third-party service provider.

Withdrawals/Refunds

Any alteration of a student's schedule must be made in writing, with the student's signature, to the Office of Enrollment Services. Forms to delete a course(s) or withdraw completely from the University are available in the Office of Enrollment Services. Only those alterations with an effective date prior to the first day of the semester will be accorded a 100 percent refund of tuition or a cancellation of 100 percent of the tuition due to the University.

Payment Deadline

Please adhere to payment deadlines and policies established by the University for each semester. Failure to comply will result in late charges.

Students who pay while still enrolled at the University will pay the 2% late-fee assessment. However, if the student stops attending the University and the account is taken over by the collections department, a 12% penalty will be assessed to the unpaid balance.

Collection Fee

By registering for a course or courses, the student has entered into a contractual agreement with Fairleigh Dickinson University and has a financial obligation to pay the expenses incurred. In the event the student fails to honor his/her financial obligation, the student will also be responsible to pay all collection costs associated with the University's attempt to collect the past-due balance; collection costs can include a third-party collection fee of 30 percent of the past-due balance. The University reserves the right to report unpaid account information to any credit bureau.

Employee Educational Tuition Grants (ETG)

Employees or dependents of employees must apply for an Educational Tuition Grant (ETG) through the Office of University Human Resources prior to being registered. Upon approval, a voucher will be issued to the registrant to be presented along with the registration form at the Office of Enrollment Services/Registration. Employees are responsible for fees. The tuition credit will be applied to employee's/dependent's account 3–4 weeks into the term by the Financial Aid Office.
