All fees, tuition and charges are subject to change at any time at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

The University reserves the right to change, without prior notice, the contents of its Bulletins and to modify its academic calendar and programs of instruction; academic and disciplinary requirements, policies and procedures, rules and regulations; its tuition, fees and charges, and the terms of financial aid. Changes shall be effective upon publication or when the University otherwise determines, and any such change may apply to prospective students and to those who already are enrolled at the University.

The University reserves the right to deny admission and matriculation to any applicant who, in the judgment of the University, is not qualified, may not benefit from the University's educational programs or whose presence or conduct may impact negatively on its program(s). Students applying for admission to the University agree to abide by all the rules and regulations now or hereafter promulgated by the University. Any student failing to comply with such rules and regulations is subject to their application being rejected, offer of acceptance being rescinded, enrollment being cancelled or other appropriate disciplinary actions. Submission of false information, in this application or otherwise, is deemed a violation of University rules and regulations.

Fairleigh Dickinson University is committed to providing equal opportunity to all qualified persons and does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, creed, ancestry or national origin, handicap/disability, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy status or veteran status with regard to recruitment, admission or matriculation.

The Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act

The Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act was signed into law in 1990 and amended with the Higher Education Technical Amendment of 1991. The first disclosure date for graduation/completion rates required by the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act was July 1, 1995. In compliance with this act, Fairleigh Dickinson University makes this information available to current and prospective students through the Office of Enrollment Management.
