

Do You Know Someone Whose Professional and Volunteer Accomplishments Deserve to be Recognized by The Fairleigh Dickinson University Alumni Association?

In the month of October, beginning in 2005, the Fairleigh Dickinson University Alumni Association Board of Governors will honor individuals whose outstanding professional accomplishments and volunteer services have contributed to the success and reputation of Fairleigh Dickinson University.

The Elia G. Stratis CASTLE Award is the highest award the Alumni Association presents, and is given to a graduate who has demonstrated a lifetime of outstanding loyalty and service to Fairleigh Dickinson University. Recipients have made significant contributions to a specific college, school, or program within the University or have served with distinction in organizations such as the Alumni Association Board of Governors or the University Board of Trustees.
Note: Two previously separate awards, the Elia G. Stratis Service Award and the CASTLE Award have been combined to create the Elia G. Stratis CASTLE Award.

The Outstanding Young Alumni Award is presented to a graduate who has achieved exceptional success in his or her profession, and who has graduated in the past fifteen years. Recipients are recognized for being emerging leaders in their fields or for service to the University and/or the Alumni Association.

The Volunteer of the Year Award is given to alumni who have contributed significantly to one or more of the following areas: academic programs, admissions, athletics, career development, chapters, fundraising, and student life.
