

INVITATION TO VOLUNTARILY SELF-IDENTIFY FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES & COVERED VETERANS

Fairleigh Dickinson University is a government contractor and has developed an Affirmative Action Plan to employ, and advance in employment, qualified individuals with disabilities, special disabled veterans, Armed Forces Service Medal Veterans, and other covered veterans. As a government contractor, FDU is subject to the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, and the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2002. We are gathering information FOR REPORTING and RECORDKEEPING PURPOSES IN COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL REGUALTIONS. The information you provide is strictly voluntary, and failure to disclose information will not subject you to any adverse action. Providing this information will help in developing and monitoring the university's Affirmative Action Program. You may also identify yourself at any time in the future if you do not wish to do so now.

The Information provided will be kept confidential except that (1) supervisors and managers may be informed regarding restrictions on the work or duties of individuals with disabilities, and regarding necessary accommodations; (2) first aid and safety personnel may be informed, when and to the extent appropriate, if the condition might require emergency treatment; and (3) government officials investigating compliance with the law will be informed.

The Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974 and the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2002 require government contractors and subcontractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified disabled veterans, Armed Forces Service Medal Veterans, recently separated veterans and other protected veterans. The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 requires government contractors and subcontractors to take affirmative action to employ, and advance in employment, qualified disabled individuals.

Fairleigh Dickinson University supports equal employment opportunity/affirmative action in all aspects of employment including, but not limited to: applications, promotions, training and retention. The university establishes and monitors affirmative action goals and takes proactive measures throughout the year to advance these goals and to insure equal employment opportunity for all.

If you are a disabled veteran, an Armed Forces Service Medal Veteran, an otherwise covered veteran, or a disabled individual, we would like to include you under our Affirmative Action Program. If you are a disabled veteran or a disabled individual, it would assist us if you would tell us about (1) any special methods, skills, and procedures which would qualify you for positions that you might not otherwise be able to do because of your disability, so that you will be considered for any positions of that kind, and (2) the accommodations which we could possibly make which would enable you to perform the job properly and safely.

If you choose not to answer any questions, you will not be subject to adverse treatment.

ARMED FORCES SERVICE MEDAL VETERAN:

An Armed Forces Service Medal Veteran means any veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985 (61 FR 1209). The DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, indicates whether a veteran is a recipient of an Armed Forces service medal. Veterans who self-identify as Armed Forces Service Medal Veterans may be asked to provide a copy of this form.

Are you an Armed Forces Service Medal veteran? Yes No

RECENTLY SEPARATED VETERAN:

A recently separated veteran means a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during the three-year period beginning on the date of such a veteran's discharge or release from active duty.

Are you a recently separated veteran? Yes No

An "other protected veteran" means a veteran who served on military, ground, naval or air service of the United States active duty during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized, under la administered by the Department of Defense.

VetGuide Appendix A: Wars, Campaigns and Expeditions of the Armed Forces Since WW II Which Qualify for Veterans Preference

This page can be found on the web at the following url: http://www.opm.gov/veterans/html/vgmedal2.asp

War Service Creditable for Veterans Preference. In the absence of statutory definition for "war" and "campaign or expedition," OPM considers to be "wars" only those armed conflicts for which a declaration of war was issued by Congress. The title 38, U.S.C., definition of "period of war," which is used in determining benefits administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs, includes the Vietnam Era and other armed conflicts. That title 38 definition is NOT applicable for civil service purposes.

Thus the last "war" for which active duty is qualifying for Veterans preference is World War II. The inclusive dates for World War II service are December 7, 1941, through April 28, 1952.

Non-combat operations that are not qualifying for Veterans preference. Many medals are awarded for non-combat operations. These medals are not a basis for preference and include the following:

- Global War on Terrorism Service Medal for service from September 11, 2001, to date to be determined.
- The Medal of Merit for meritorious service in World War II.
- The Medal of Freedom for meritorious achievements or meritorious service to the United States on or after December 7, 1941, in the war against an enemy outside the continental limits of the United States.
- The Antarctica Service Medal for participating in a scientific, direct support, or exploratory operation on the Antarctic Continent.
- The National Defense Service Medal for honorable service between June 27, 1950 and July 27, 1954 or January 1, 1961 and August 14, 1974; or for the period between August 2, 1990, and November 30, 1995.
- The Armed Forces Service Medal for participation in a United States military operation deemed to be a significant activity for which there was no threat of encounter of foreign armed opposition or imminent threat of hostile action.
- The Armed Forces Reserve Medal for 10 years of honorable service in a Reserve component; or active duty service in a Reserve component on or after August 1, 1990; or volunteer service for active duty on or after August 1, 1990.

Military Operations Since 1937 for Which a Campaign or Expeditionary Medal Has Been Awarded, Except for Operations Occurring During a Declared War

Military personnel receive many awards and decorations. To help agencies make decisions concerning entitlement to Veterans preference and other benefits, the following list identifies those awards that are campaign and expeditionary medals. Any Armed Forces expeditionary Medal, whether listed here or not, is qualifying for Veterans preference. The Department of Defense, not OPM, determines who is entitled to receive a medal, and under what circumstances. The list below is derived from DoD 1348.33-M, Manual of Military Decorations and Awards.

DD 214, Certificate of Discharge or Separation from Active Duty, or other official documents issued by the branch of service are required as verification of eligibility for Veterans preference.

Note: Section 572 of Subtitle G of the Defense Authorization Act of Fiscal Year 1998 (Public Law 105-85), signed into law on November 18, 1997, allows the Secretary of the military department concerned to determine whether individual members who participated in Operation Joint Endeavor or Operation Joint Guard in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina and in such other areas in the region as the Secretary of Defense considers appropriate, meet the individual service requirements for award of the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal (AFEM). Generally, service members will be considered eligible if they:

- deployed to Bosnia and Herzegovina (or other area that the Secretary of Defense considers appropriate) in direct support of one or both of the operations;
- served on board a ship in the Adriatic in direct support of one or both of the operations; or
- operated in airspace above Bosnia, Herzegovina (or other area that the Secretary of Defense considers appropriate) while the operations were in effect.
