■ FDU Study Abroad in Chengdu, China

Experience a unique, integrated study-abroad adventure at the Chengdu American Study Center! Encounter the sights, sounds and tastes of one of the most exciting and vibrant cities in modern China.

A semester at FDU's Study Abroad Center in China offers a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to live in one of China's fastest growing cities in the region. As a hub for financial growth, technological advancement and cultural activities, Chengdu is known as the gateway to the "real China." A subtropical climate lends itself to a slower pace of life, even as the city continues to develop. Famous for its world-class cuisine, leisurely teahouses and historic temples, the quality of life in Chengdu rivals the day-to-day living in cities as large as Beijing and Shanghai. Housed in the prestigious Sichuan University, the center is located on the university's beautiful downtown Huaxi campus. Living among buildings from the Qing Dynasty, you will study with students from Sichuan University and around the United States.
