PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Summer Teacher Academy serves as an introduction to teaching and the teaching profession. It will focus on how to teach Math, Science, and Literacy to K-12 students. It will also provide you with:

- Opportunities to meet with distinguished FDU faculty, educational leaders, and teachers to discuss issues pertinent to education
- Meaningful creative, hands-on learning activities
- Fun Math/Science/Literacy activities
- Teaching experience before attending college
- Opportunities to make a difference in a student's life
- Team building exercises
- Experiencing the FDU Metropolitan campus

Each participant will be required to attend all sessions, participate in all activities and share his/her reflections about the Summer Teacher Academy.

INSTRUCTORS

Faculty will include FDU professors, local community and educational leaders.

PROGRAM ORGANIZATION

Registration will be limited to 20 high school juniors. This program will meet Monday through Thursday for two weeks (July 10-13 and July 17-20) from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. If additional time is needed, advance information will be sent home.

Students are required to attend every session. Absences for compelling circumstances must be approved by the Program Coordinator. Letters of acceptance will be sent directly to the applicant.
