Cancellation: Fall, Spring, Summer, Winter, and Module Terms: Forms to drop a course(s), or withdraw completely from the University, are available in each campus' Office of Enrollment Services. The effective date of any notification of course deletion or withdrawal will be the date of receipt by the Office of Enrollment Services.

Collection Fee: In the event you fail to honor your financial obligations under this contract, you will also be responsible to pay all collection costs associated with the University's attempt to collect the past due balance. Collections costs can include a third party collection fee of 30% of the past due balance. The University reserves the right to report unpaid account information to any credit bureau. It is understood that in the event you fail to honor your obligations under this contract, in addition to its other remedies, the University shall have the right to restrict future class registration, withhold transcripts, diplomas and any Certificate of Completion.

Late Payment Charges: A late payment charge will be assessed, during the term for enrolled students, starting at a rate of 2%. Such charge will be assessed at the time any payment (full or partial) is made, against the payment made, and shall be added to the then outstanding balance. A 12% late fee will be assessed on any unpaid balance at the end of the term.

Corporate Voucher: All third party corporate vouchers must be submitted at the time of registration.
