

How can I help transform FDU?

Your role in the University's Self-Study process, Spring 2023 through Spring 2025

This is a community-wide effort—including all of our colleges, schools, services, and campuses—and we hope you will share your voice and perspective, your time and your talents. There are a lot of ways to get involved at any stage of the self-study process.

The entire university community will be invited to provide feedback on the draft Self-Study Report in early Fall 2024, but we invite faculty, staff, administrators, and students to join us for the self-study process, with the goal of producing a Self-Study Report that is truly inclusive and reflective of who we are as a university and where we want to go. This is your opportunity to help transform FDU!

Faculty, Administrators, and Staff

There are many ways for faculty, administrators, and staff to get involved! Choose one or all of the options below:

- Attend the Town Hall with our MSCHE VP in Spring 2023: On April 6, 2023, MSCHE Vice President Terence Peavy will be visiting FDU. A Town Hall will be held from 12:30-1:30pm EST, in person in Dickinson Hall at the Metro Campus and via Zoom (link will be shared in an email with the university community prior to the event). Attending will give you a chance to learn more about the self-study process!
- Join a Working Group: Faculty, administrators, and staff are invited to volunteer to work on one of the seven Working Groups. If you are interested in joining us, please 1) review the Working Groups page to determine which group would benefit most from your voice, experience, and perspective; and 2) Fill out this form as soon as possible, but no later than Thursday, May 1, 2023, to identify your first and second choice of Working Groups. Please note that the majority of the work for the Working Groups will occur in Fall 2023 and Spring 2024; the extent of your involvement and work on any Working Group is flexible and can be organized around your availability.
- Help with a Kick-off Event: We will be holding kick-off events at Florham, Metro, and Vancouver in concert with our year-end award ceremonies (May 5th in Vancouver, May 8th at Florham, and May 9th at Metro). Reach out to selfstudy@fdu.edu if you are interested in volunteering to help organize and participate in a kick-off event.

Students

Without student voices and perspectives, our self-study process would be terribly incomplete. Students, you are why we are here—as Interim President Avaltroni has said, you are our “north star.”

There are many ways for students to get involved! Choose one or all of the options below:

- Attend the Town Hall with our MSCHE VP in Spring 2023: On April 6, 2023, MSCHE Vice President Terence Peavy will be visiting FDU. A Town Hall will be held from 12:30-1:30pm EST, in person in Dickinson Hall at the Metro Campus and via Zoom (link will be shared in an email with the university community prior to the event).
- Join a Working Group: Each working group will include two Student Advisors, who will be invited to provide their perspective and voice throughout the self-study process. Student Affairs will be reaching out to recruit Student Advisors. If you are interested in being considered as a Student Advisor for a specific Working Group, please feel free to contact any member of the Steering Committee.
- Help with a Kick-off Event: We will be holding kick-off events at Florham, Metro, and Vancouver in mid-April, 2023. Reach out to selfstudy@fdu.edu if you are interested in volunteering to help organize and participate in a kick-off event.
