

Pedro Zuleta

Student Pinnacle Award

Vancouver Campus

Pedro Juan Zuleta of Medellin, Colombia, impressed his classmates and professors with his intellectual curiosity and passion for learning. Along with earning the highest grade point ratio of his graduating class, he was active in student government, helped with marketing efforts to increase the University's recognition outside of the US-Canada border region and was a sought-after team player in student sports activities, especially soccer.

Zuleta, who started at FDU-Vancouver in 2008 after obtaining an associate degree in business administration from Universidad EAFIT in Medellin, graduates with a BS in business administration with concentrations in marketing and international business.

Zuleta was on the Honors List for seven semesters and is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, the international honor society for business students. He was treasurer for the Student Government Association at FDU-Vancouver and attended the May 2009 Global Vision Global Leadership Center held on campus. In Colombia, Zuleta worked as a marketing assistant for Incolmotos-Yamaha and in marketing and sales for Amway. He was also a member of Soñar Despierto, a charitable organization which makes disadvantaged children's dreams come true. Zuleta plans to start his business career in either Canada or the United States.
