ABOUT VANCOUVER

Vancouver, British Columbia is one of the most vibrant, inclusive, and forward-thinking cities in the world, an ideal place for students beginning their personal and professional journey. Known for its breathtaking natural beauty and rich cultural diversity, Vancouver offers a welcoming atmosphere where people from all backgrounds feel at home. With over 100 languages spoken in the region, communities from across the globe come together to Vancouver, creating a truly multicultural environment. As a global hub for innovation, sustainability, and creativity, Vancouver provides the perfect setting for both academic achievement and personal growth.

Vancouver and the province of British Columbia are also among the most economically dynamic regions in Canada. With rapid growth across industries such as business, technology, hospitality, tourism, and the creative arts, opportunities abound for students and professionals alike. As Canada's gateway to the Asia-Pacific, Vancouver is deeply connected to global markets and cultures, making it a prime destination for those eager to build international careers. British Columbia is expected to generate over a million job openings by 2034, creating pathways for young professionals to pursue meaningful work in fields they are passionate about.¹ The city's focus on innovation, digital transformation, and sustainability makes it a launching pad for future-ready talent from around the world.

Life in Vancouver goes far beyond academics and career development. The city offers a unique lifestyle where urban energy meets natural wonder, from the ocean to the mountains, from skiing in Whistler to hiking the Sea-to-Sky trails or kayaking at sunset. Its diverse neighbourhoods are filled with world cuisines, trendy cafés, and cultural festivals, making every day an opportunity to explore something new. The city has made its mark on the world stage, hosting iconic events like the 2010 Winter Olympics, the 2025 Invictus Games, Taylor Swift's 2024 Eras Tour, and the upcoming FIFA World Cup in 2026.

PERSONAL. GLOBAL. TRANSFORMATIONAL.

GLOBAL SCHOLARS PROGRAM

FDU Vancouver is dedicated to the preparation of world citizens through global education. The four-year Global Scholars Program is an organized and integrated course of study that combines an intensive multi-disciplinary learning environment with a cross-spectrum of cultural experiences on and off campus.

As a Global Scholar, you will be part of a distinctive community of learners who are committed to world citizenship and to developing a global perspective as tomorrow's leaders.

During their first year, Global Scholars have the opportunity to participate in domestic and international experiential learning, such as:

- Special speaker series: 'Diplomatic Circle Series' and 'Distinguished Visitors Series'
- International conferences and/or other events about global topics — including the Model United Nations.
- Co-curricular field experiences at FDU campuses in New Jersey and elsewhere.
- Opportunity to visit the UN Headquarters in New York if you spend a semester at one of FDU's New Jersey campuses.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Model United Nations simulates United Nations, International Organizations, and governmental bodies such as the World Health Organization, and government cabinets, in which participants are assigned to represent countries, organizations, or leaders in order to debate pressing international issues. With rapid globalization, the leadership, organizational, creative, and personal skills that you develop will be useful for any career.

FDU Vancouver's National Model United Nations delegation won the Honorable Mention award at the NMUN 2024 Conference in New York City. Representing the Republic of the Niger, FDU Vancouver students worked long hours and interacted with 3500 university students from around the world. Over the past ten years, FDU Vancouver Campus has won several prestigious awards at the National Model United Nations.

FDU AND UN RELATIONS

- Fairleigh Dickinson University has been the first university in the world to be granted Special Consultative Status with the UN Economic and Social Council
- Founding Member of the UN Academic Impact Program
- One of the universities to be recognized as an NGO by the UN Department of Public Information

FINANCIAL AID FOR DOMESTIC AND U.S. STUDENTS

Domestic Students

Canada Student Financial Assistance Program provides eligible post-secondary students with financial support through a mix of grants and loans. Administered in partnership with most provinces and territories, it helps reduce the financial barriers to education for full-time and part-time students.

Students from Canadian provinces may also be eligible for financial aid from their home province while attending FDU Vancouver. For more information, contact your provincial or territorial financial aid program office.

U.S. Students

Eligible students attending FDU Vancouver wishing to apply for a loan within the Federal Direct Loan Program must file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each academic year. To be eligible for FAFSA funding, you must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident and meet other FAFSA qualifying criteria. For more information, visit the FDU Financial Aid website:

fdu.edu/admissions/financial-aid/undergraduate

U.S. Veterans attending FDU Vancouver are eligible for the Montgomery GI Bill funding and Yellow Ribbon Program.

LIVING IN VANCOUVER

HOUSING

FDU Vancouver has a dedicated housing coordinator as part of the Student Services Team, committed to assisting students in navigating the rental market and helping them find their home in Metro Vancouver. While FDU Vancouver does not have on-campus housing, our housing coordinator helps explore housing options for individuals, couples, or families ranging from homestay, apartments, shared or private accommodations, and off-campus student housing.

For more information on various available housing options, visit fdu.edu/vancouver-life

For any housing-related assistance or inquiries, please contact our housing coordinator at fduvanhousing@fdu.edu.

Off-campus housing is a popular choice among students.

TRANSPORTATION

Metro Vancouver's local transit network, Translink, connects various cities across the greater metropolitan area by providing a variety of public transportation options, such as bus, SkyTrain, SeaBus and West Coast Express.

From Downtown Vancouver's Waterfront Station, you can catch the SeaBus to North Vancouver, take the scenic route with the West Coast Express to Mission City, or ride the SkyTrain over the cities that make up the Lower Mainland of British Columbia.

Taxi and rideshare services are also available throughout the region.

Lions Gate Bridge, Vancouver

FOOD

The Canadian West Coast is known for its diverse culinary options, available for all preferences. In Metro Vancouver, you can find fresh food while dining at local restaurants or while grocery shopping at supermarkets.

You can also find Metro Vancouver's diverse population reflected in the local cuisine. With a variety of flavours from around the world, you can discover authentic dishes and creative fusion foods.

There are many small mom-and-pop businesses and locally-owned food chains throughout the region. Keep an eye out for events like food festivals and farmer's markets—they are a great way to discover new food and to source ingredients from local businesses.

From food trucks and supermarkets to cafés and restaurants, there will always be something new to try and give your taste buds an adventure of their own.

CAMPUS SERVICES

FDU Vancouver has various services available to support and enhance students' journey.

STUDENT SERVICES

Student Services is committed to enhancing our students' university experience both inside and outside the classroom. It provides support with housing, immigration, health insurance, and wellness, helping students navigate life in Vancouver with confidence.

The community at FDU Vancouver is diverse and inclusive, celebrating global traditions and encouraging meaningful dialogue among students from around the world. By fostering connection and belonging, Student Services helps students build lifelong friendships, get exposure to leadership opportunities, and find their place on campus. Whether arriving from across the city or across the globe, students can access personalized support that makes FDU Vancouver feel like a welcoming and supportive home.

CAREER SERVICES

Career Services supports FDU Vancouver students from day one and remains a lifelong resource. Our student-first team provides personalized advising, workshops, and a range of resources to build confidence and career readiness. We help students explore interests, develop action plans, and prepare for the next steps in their career paths.

We actively connect students and alumni with the global workforce by creating opportunities for mentorship, real-world insights, and career exploration. Career fairs, networking events, employer visits, and alumni panels offer meaningful ways to engage with industry and the FDU community.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

FDU Vancouver supports academic success for all undergraduate and graduate students. Professional advisors are available year-round to provide guidance on university policies, degree requirements, course selection, and ongoing academic planning. Our goal is to enhance each student's ability to learn, apply knowledge, and think critically. Through individualized advising, we empower students to take ownership of their academic journey, build strong decision-making skills, and make informed choices that align with their educational and professional goals.

FUTURE OF FDU VANCOUVER

FDU Vancouver is proud to announce the opening of our brand-new Vancouver Campus at Oakridge Park, a vibrant and forward-thinking community in the heart of the city. This exciting expansion marks a new era for FDU Vancouver—one that deepens our commitment to academic excellence, global opportunity, and student-centred learning in Canada.

Discover a university experience that blends rigorous academics with an inclusive, welcoming environment where your voice matters. At FDU Vancouver, you'll thrive in a multicultural setting designed to support your goals and expand your future.
