If the tuition credit results in an overpayment, the University will issue you a refund.

Late Payment Charges: A late payment charge will be assessed, during the term for enrolled students, starting at a rate of 2%. Such charge will be assessed at the time any payment (full or partial) is made, against the payment made, and shall be added to the then outstanding balance. A 12% late fee will be assessed on any unpaid balance at the end of the term.

Collection Fee: If this account is placed with an attorney or a collection agency because of an unpaid balance remaining on your account, you hereby agree and promise to pay a collection fee of 30% of the total balance due upon placement with an attorney or collection agency. The University reserves the right to report unpaid account information to any credit bureau. In addition, if you fail to honor your obligations under this Contract, in addition to its other remedies, the University shall have the right to restrict future class registration and withhold enrollment letters, official transcripts, diplomas, and any certificates, to the fullest extent permissible by law.

Method of Communication: FDU-Vancouver uses email and text as an official method of communication with students at the FDU-Vancouver email account assigned to each student, and therefore you are responsible for reading the emails and texts received from FDU-Vancouver, on a timely basis.

Method of Billing: You understand that FDU-Vancouver uses electronic billing (eBill) as its official billing method, and therefore you are responsible for viewing and paying your student account eBill by the scheduled due date. You understand that failure to review the eBill does not constitute a valid reason for not paying any bill on time. You acknowledge being able to access the eBill by logging into Self-Service by using the student's FDU-Vancouver NetID and password.

ATTENTION: BY SIGNING THIS CONTRACT YOU FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

By signing below or, if earlier, registering for a course, courses or a program, you understand and agree that you are entering into a contractual agreement ("Contract") with Fairleigh Dickinson University Vancouver (this form constitutes our complete and entire agreement with respect to its subject matter), and you have an obligation to pay tuition, course associated fees, registration and other fees as well as any of the costs and expenses listed above that you may incur. Academic withdrawal or inability to secure an expected loan does not cancel this Contract. The effective date of any notification of course deletion or withdrawal will be the date of receipt by the Office of Enrollment Services. Non-attendance does not constitute an official drop or withdrawal.

You are required to comply with applicable policies, including, without limitation, Code of Conduct and safety and health measures as may be updated by FDU-Vancouver from time to time. The student is ultimately responsible for enrolling in the appropriate course and section.

Refunds or the return of tuition and fees for withdrawal only occur in accordance with the tuition and fees credit policy located above. Tuition and fees for HRTM 7716 are fully refundable if the course withdrawal is made within ten (10) calendar days from the date summer registration opens. After the 10-day refund period, the course's tuition and field trip fee become non-refundable.

The payment of tuition and fees to the University is solely in exchange for enrollment in courses and the opportunity to earn academic credit upon successful completion of course requirements.
