

PROFESSIONAL. PREPARED. PROMOTABLE.

Bachelor's in Professional Studies

NEW FOR FALL 2026!

INTRODUCING FDU'S NEWEST MAJOR FOCUSED ON YOUR FUTURE

Start Designing Your Career from Day One

With our flexible and highly personalized Bachelor's in Professional Studies, you'll explore your interests while building the skills and experience employers value most — starting immediately.

You'll work with faculty and dedicated advisors to personalize a plan of study that connects to real-world careers!

It's a True Resume-Builder

This degree prioritizes studies in multiple fields and immediate workplace application. You'll gain the practical knowledge, experience and credentials employers want through:

- Hands-on projects
- Professional internships
- Mentorship and networking
- Multiyear portfolio that highlights your accomplishments

Stand Out with In-Demand Certificates

Earn marketable certificates in areas such as Leadership, AI and Technology, and Global Collaboration. They're built into your studies and LinkedIn-ready as soon as you earn them. They'll be on your official transcript when you graduate, too!

Created by Employers for Future Employees — YOU!

This degree was created with input and collaboration from regional and national employers of all industries and sizes — so you'll have the skills employers value most: the ability to communicate, problem solve, adapt, and collaborate and lead as a member of a team.

Is a Professional Studies Major Right for You?

Learn more today!

Scan the code or contact:

Stacie Lents • Program Director

Professor, Maxwell Becton College of Liberal Arts and Education

Email: Lents@fdu.edu | Phone: 973-443-8397

