2026–2027 PROFILE

Information for College Admission Counseling Professionals

UNIVERSITY NEWS NOTES

$6 Million Gift — An anonymous $6 million gift honoring late FDU alumna and educator Marion Turpan will support scholarships and faculty research, enhance resources and expand mental health education and services. In her memory, FDU's psychology and counseling college is now known as the Marion Turpan College of Psychology and Counseling.

#1 CPA Pass Rate — FDU ranks #1 in New Jersey for the highest percentage of students passing the Uniform CPA Examination, according to the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy. FDU surpassed 13 other academic institutions across the state. The CPA credential is one of the most respected and sought-after designations in business.

NEW ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Bachelor's in Professional Studies — An interdisciplinary, career-focused option for students who want to explore multiple academic interests, featuring experiential learning, mentoring and marketable certificates.

BA in Science and Technical Writing — Combines studies in science, health care and medicine with communication, with options to pursue the degree as a primary or second major.

Minor in Humanities — Prepares future professionals in fields that are increasingly AI- and data-driven — including health care — to remain “deeply human” by focusing on empathy, ethics, cultural competency and a greater understanding of the human condition.
