STUDENT LIFE AT FDU VANCOUVER 38

20TH ANNIVERSARY OF FDU VANCOUVER 39

Fairleigh Dickinson University's Vancouver Campus acknowledges that it is located on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territories of the Coast Salish peoples, including the xʷməθkwəy̓əm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), Stó:lō, and Səlilwətaʔ/ Selilwitulh (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations. We are grateful to learn, teach, live, play, and share knowledge on this land.

Welcome to FDU Vancouver!

As President of Fairleigh Dickinson University, I'm delighted to introduce you to a vibrant academic community dedicated to your personal and professional growth. Whether you're drawn to business, health, hospitality and tourism, humanities or information technology at FDU Vancouver, you'll find a globally oriented education that's deeply rooted in Canadian values and enriched by international perspectives. Here, we prioritize your educational journey through personalized support and practical learning taught by research faculty that prepares you not just for a job, but transforms you for a meaningful, purpose-driven career.

At FDU, our mission is to shape globally minded professionals who are ready to contribute to the future workforce both in Canada and around the world. We believe in a Personal, Global, and Transformational approach to education—empowering students to become responsible global citizens, innovative thinkers, and ethical leaders. I invite you to explore what makes FDU Vancouver a truly unique, inclusive, and diverse place to learn, grow, and launch your future.

As we look ahead to the next chapter of our university's journey with the opening of our new campus at Oakridge Park, we reaffirm our commitment to building an inclusive, forward-thinking community where ideas flourish and partnerships thrive. This new campus is more than a place of learning—it is a catalyst for collaboration, bringing together learners, educators, community leaders, and industry professionals to exchange knowledge, innovate, and drive meaningful change. Together, we will create opportunities that extend beyond the classroom, empowering individuals to make lasting contributions in British Columbia and around the world.

— Michael J. Avaltroni
Fairleigh Dickinson University President

ABOUT VANCOUVER

Vancouver, British Columbia is a vibrant, inclusive, and global metropolitan city, an ideal place for students beginning their personal and professional journey. Known for its breathtaking natural beauty and rich cultural diversity, Vancouver offers a welcoming atmosphere where people from all backgrounds feel at home. With over 100 languages spoken in the region, communities from across the globe come together, creating a truly multicultural environment in Canada.

The Greater Vancouver region is an economic and educational destination in North America. With rapid growth across industries such as business, health and life sciences, information technology, hospitality, tourism, and the creative arts, students and professionals can benefit from expanding learning pathways, collaboration and diverse career opportunities.

As Canada's gateway to the Asia-Pacific, Vancouver is deeply connected to global markets and cultures, making it a prime destination for professionals to build industry connections and international careers. British Columbia is expected to generate over a million job openings by 2034, creating pathways for young professionals to pursue meaningful work in fields they are passionate about.[1]

Life in Vancouver goes far beyond academics and career development. As the third-largest metropolitan city in Canada, Vancouver offers a balanced lifestyle where urban energy meets natural wonder, from the ocean to the mountains, from skiing in Whistler to hiking the Sea-to-Sky trails or kayaking at English Bay during sunset. The city has made its mark on the world stage, hosting iconic events like the Web Summit Vancouver, the 2010 Winter Olympics, Taylor Swift's 2024 Eras Tour, the 2025 Invictus Games, and the FIFA World Cup in 2026.

GLOBAL SCHOLARS PROGRAM

FDU Vancouver is dedicated to the preparation of world citizens through global education. The four-year Global Scholars Program is an organized and integrated course of study that combines an intensive multi-disciplinary learning environment with a cross-spectrum of cultural experiences on and off campus.

As a Global Scholar, you will be part of a distinctive community of learners who are committed to world citizenship and to developing a global perspective as tomorrow's leaders. During their first year, Global Scholars can participate in domestic and international experiential learning, such as:

- Special speaker series: 'Diplomatic & Industry Circle Series'
- International conferences and/or other events about global topics — including the Model United Nations.
- Co-curricular field experiences at FDU campuses in New Jersey and elsewhere.
- Opportunity to visit the UN Headquarters in New York if you spend a semester at one of FDU's New Jersey campuses.

FDU AND UN RELATIONS

- Fairleigh Dickinson University was the first university to be granted Special Consultative Status with the UN Economic and Social Council.
- Founding Member of the UN Academic Impact Program.
- One of the universities to be recognized as an NGO by the UN Department of Public Information.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Model United Nations simulates United Nations, international organizations, and governmental bodies such as the World Health Organization, and government cabinets, in which participants are assigned to represent countries, organizations, or leaders in order to debate pressing international issues. With rapid globalization, the leadership, organizational, creative, and personal skills that you develop will be useful for any career.

FDU Vancouver's National Model United Nations delegation won the Honorable Mention award at the NMUN 2024 Conference in New York City. Representing the Republic of the Niger, FDU Vancouver students worked long hours and interacted with 3500 university students from around the world. Over the past ten years, FDU Vancouver Campus has won several prestigious awards at the National Model United Nations.

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES & FINANCIAL AID

FINANCIAL AID FOR DOMESTIC AND U.S. STUDENTS

Domestic Students

Canada Student Financial Assistance Program provides eligible post-secondary students with financial support through a mix of grants and loans. Administered in partnership with most provinces and territories, it helps reduce the financial barriers to education for full-time and part-time students.

Students from Canadian provinces may also be eligible for financial aid from their home province while attending FDU Vancouver. For more information, contact your provincial or territorial financial aid program office.

U.S. Students

Eligible students attending FDU Vancouver wishing to apply for a loan within the Federal Direct Loan Program must file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each academic year. To be eligible for FAFSA funding, you must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident and meet other FAFSA qualifying criteria.

U.S. Veterans attending FDU Vancouver are eligible for the Montgomery GI Bill funding and Yellow Ribbon Program.

For more information, visit the FDU Financial Aid website: fdu.edu/admissions/financial-aid/undergraduate

GLOBAL SCHOLARS GRANT (DOMESTIC & INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS)

Global Scholars Grant is an additional award offered to qualifying undergraduate students who have been admitted to the Global Scholars Program.

> "Looking back, choosing FDU Vancouver for my graduate studies was one of the best decisions I have made.
>
> From my first semester to my final one, I've grown tremendously—thanks to my professors. They were inclusive, supportive, and always welcomed questions. Despite the diverse backgrounds in class, their teaching style was tailored to suit everyone's understanding, blending theory with real-world experience and helping me thrive even with limited industry knowledge.

LIVING IN VANCOUVER

HOUSING

FDU Vancouver has a dedicated housing coordinator as part of the Student Services Team, committed to assisting students in navigating the rental market and helping them find their home in Metro Vancouver. While FDU Vancouver does not have on-campus housing, our housing coordinator helps explore housing options for individuals, couples, or families ranging from homestay, apartments, shared or private accommodations, and off-campus student housing.

For more information on various available housing options, visit fdu.edu/vancouver-life

For any housing-related assistance or inquiries, please contact our housing coordinator at fduvanhousing@fdu.edu.

FOOD

The Canadian West Coast is known for its diverse culinary options, available for all preferences. In Metro Vancouver, you can find fresh food while dining at local restaurants or while grocery shopping at supermarkets.

You can also find Metro Vancouver's diverse population reflected in the local cuisine. With a variety of flavours from around the world, you can discover authentic dishes and creative fusion foods.

There are many small mom-and-pop businesses and locally-owned food chains throughout the region. Keep an eye out for events like food festivals and farmer's markets—they are a great way to discover new food and to source ingredients from local businesses.

From food trucks and supermarkets to cafés and restaurants, there will always be something new to try and give your taste buds an adventure of their own.

TRANSPORTATION

Metro Vancouver's local transit network, Translink, connects various cities across the greater metropolitan area by providing a variety of public transportation options, such as bus, SkyTrain, SeaBus and West Coast Express.

From Downtown Vancouver's Waterfront Station, you can catch the SeaBus to North Vancouver, take the scenic route with the West Coast Express to Mission City, or ride the SkyTrain over the cities that make up the Lower Mainland of British Columbia.

FDU Vancouver's new campus at Oakridge Park is 15 minutes from the busy Downtown Vancouver and 15 minutes from YVR International Airport that connects people to the world, with easy access to the SkyTrain and major transit routes:

- SkyTrain: Oakridge 41st Station by Canada Line
- Bus: #15, #41, #R4 and #N15

Taxi and rideshare services (Uber and Lyft) are also available throughout the region.

20TH ANNIVERSARY OF FDU VANCOUVER

In 2027, FDU Vancouver will celebrate its 20th anniversary and reflect on a journey built around transformation. For two decades, the campus will have brought together students from around the world, creating a place where different experiences meet and new possibilities take shape. For many students, the journey may begin with the goal of earning a degree. Along the way, it becomes something more. They discover new perspectives, grow in confidence, and begin to see what they are capable of achieving.

As FDU Vancouver marks 20 years, its story will also be reflected in its alumni. Their journeys will show how education can open doors, change perspectives, and create opportunities far beyond the classroom. They will carry their FDU experience into workplaces and communities around the world, using what they have learned to make a meaningful difference. This legacy of transformation will continue to grow, with every new student shaping the future of what education can achieve.
